My name is [Your Name], and I am from Ipsos Public Affairs, a research organization. At Ipsos, we regularly conduct research to understand people's perceptions and experiences. This helps inform the development of policies and programs that can improve products and services for society.

Currently, we are conducting an assessment on behalf of NITI Aayog on different programmes and schemes related to water resources. We are talking to households involved in agriculture across different states to understand their agricultural practices with specific focus on irrigation and other related aspects.

In this context, we have approached you to ask you for your valuable time for an interview to share your views and experience. The interview will take around 30-40 minutes.

Personal Data: You expressly give your consent to Ipsos for sharing your personal information with Niti Aayog. Your personal information will be used only for research purpose only and not otherwise. Your responses will be aggregated and presented. Your name or personal details will not be used in any report. Your personal data will not be used for commercial purposes.

Audio recording: As part of this study, you expressly give your consent to Ipsos to do audio recording of the interview. Access to the audio recordings will be limited to authorized personnel of Ipsos for quality check.

Confidentiality: If you agree to participate in this study, you may be disclosed orally, visually, electronically, in writing, by inspection of tangible objects about the information, that may not be available publicly (Confidential Information). Further you agree you will not post anything about this study on the public domain or on the social media (eg. Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.).

Voluntary Participation: Your participation in this research is strictly voluntary. You do not have to participate in this study if you do not want to. You may discontinue your participation in this study at any time, including after it has started. You confirm you are of legal age to participate and sign this document. We also want to mention that your participation is important for us and your responses will be valuable for us
